

BREEZELINE TRANSFORMS VIEWING EXPERIENCE WITH “STREAM TV”

Breezeline launches new state-of-the-art TV platform in its Connecticut service areas

Quincy, Mass., March 30, 2023 – Breezeline, the nation’s eighth-largest cable operator, has launched the next generation of TV, “Breezeline Stream TV,” in its Connecticut service areas, making it easier than ever for customers to view their favorite programming on the screen of their choice.

The service is available to new customers in New London, Groton and surrounding communities.

The cloud-based service, which is delivered via Breezeline’s high-speed internet, has already been successfully introduced in the company’s New Hampshire, Maine, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Florida, and Ohio service areas.

Breezeline Stream TV service transforms the viewing experience for customers:

- Breezeline Stream TV brings live TV, On Demand, DVR and streaming apps together in one, easy-to-use platform for viewing on TV and mobile devices inside and outside the home.
- Live rewind, start over, and catch-up features are available via the Stream TV device and within the Breezeline Stream TV app.
- Viewers can take their shows on the road, including Cloud DVR recordings.
- With Cloud DVR Max, customers can record up to 300 hours of HD content with unlimited simultaneous recordings.
- Voice command capability through Google Assistant makes it easy to find a show, open an app, check the weather or receive program recommendations.
- Viewers have access to thousands of TV apps from the Google Play Store directly from the Breezeline Stream TV device.

“Breezeline Stream TV provides a truly integrated TV viewing experience,” said Heather McCallion, Vice President, Products and Programming for Breezeline. “Viewers’ favorite content is united in one intuitive, feature-rich platform for multi-screen viewing inside or outside the home, all powered by our superfast, broadband internet.”

Breezeline Stream TV is available for new Breezeline TV customers in serviceable areas with a Breezeline internet connection. The Breezeline Stream TV app is available for free via the Apple App Store® or Google Play for Stream TV subscribers. For more information, visit <https://www.breezeline.com/streamtv>
